

Mutual Aid & Community Resources

This page is where you can:

- Learn how to engage in everyday activities through your town/city and county - volunteer, attend community meetings and hearings, vote, make use of your local parks and libraries, and more
 - Locate government services such as utilities, county clerks, courts, assistance programs (food, cash, medical, child care, housing), tax assessors, and more
 - Find help from other non-profits in the area with shelter, housing, bills, utilities and communication, jobs and training, education, legal assistance, health, clothing, transportation, and more
 - Exchange goods and services with others (mutual aid)
 - Learn about ongoing policy and research developments by institutions, non-profits, government organizations, and political groups seeking to uplift oppressed and marginalized communities
